

THE DALMORE - 18 YEAR OLD

Colour: Rich walnut brown with copper highlights.

Nose: Truly charming. Warm, sensual and pleasing. An air of peaceful tranquillity hangs over this elixir of pleasure. Soft hints of pine and lemon grass coupled with spicy cinnamon flaunt themselves in a pleasing manner. You are immediately captivated by its enticing charm that only careful nurturing and age can bring.

Taste: Take a generous mouthful and be captivated by its very soul. Like a galaxy of handmade chocolates you will be thrilled by a feast of mouth watering flavours. Close your eyes, relax. Let the world pass you by. Immediately you are consumed by a cloak of vanilla, Colombian coffee, truffles and rosemary. Subtle tangs of Parma violets and jasmine soothes your eager palate.

Cask Information/Story/History: First matured in American white oak for 14 years. Filled to redolent Matusalem sherry butts for a further 3 years. The selected whiskies are finally married in a perfect union for a full 12 months in upstanding in situ sherry butts.

Strength: 43%.

Price: £85.00 each.
